

Who Am I?

Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness....'
Genesis 2.3

...the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.
2 Corinthians 13.13

Of the many themes in Genesis 1, the _____ of God is the overarching subject. One of the minor themes of the creation story answers the question, "Who am I?"

The question, "Who am I?", is wrapped up in the question "Who is _____?" God is the Creator of all that is seen and unseen, sovereign over all the works of His hands, including humanity.

To see the grandeur and wonder of the creation is to see the grandeur and wonder of God, Who not only created us a little lower than Himself, but He also crowned us with glory and honor, _____ glory and honor.

Who am I? We are men and women created in God's image who have _____ to honor the sovereign rule of God.

Who am I? We are disciples of Jesus, the Son of God, learning from Him about Him how to be _____ Him and teaching others to do the same so that we may participate in the restoration of this fallen world.

Paul chastised the Corinthians, then he encouraged them to _____! That's the apostolic faith we are called to live. That's faith that knows the Triune God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer).

We can _____ ourselves to God's Presence with unbelief and sin. That's what the Corinthians had done, even while professing faith in Christ. Like them, by obeying Paul's commands we can open our hearts to the Holy Spirit Who is God's Presence with us and in us.

When we wake-up to the grace, love and fellowship of the Triune God being with us, we become _____ Them, a people of grace, love and fellowship, revealing to the world the glory and honor of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, and participating with God in the restoration of the created order until Jesus comes again. The choice is ours: the fellowship of the world, or the fellowship of the Holy Spirit!
